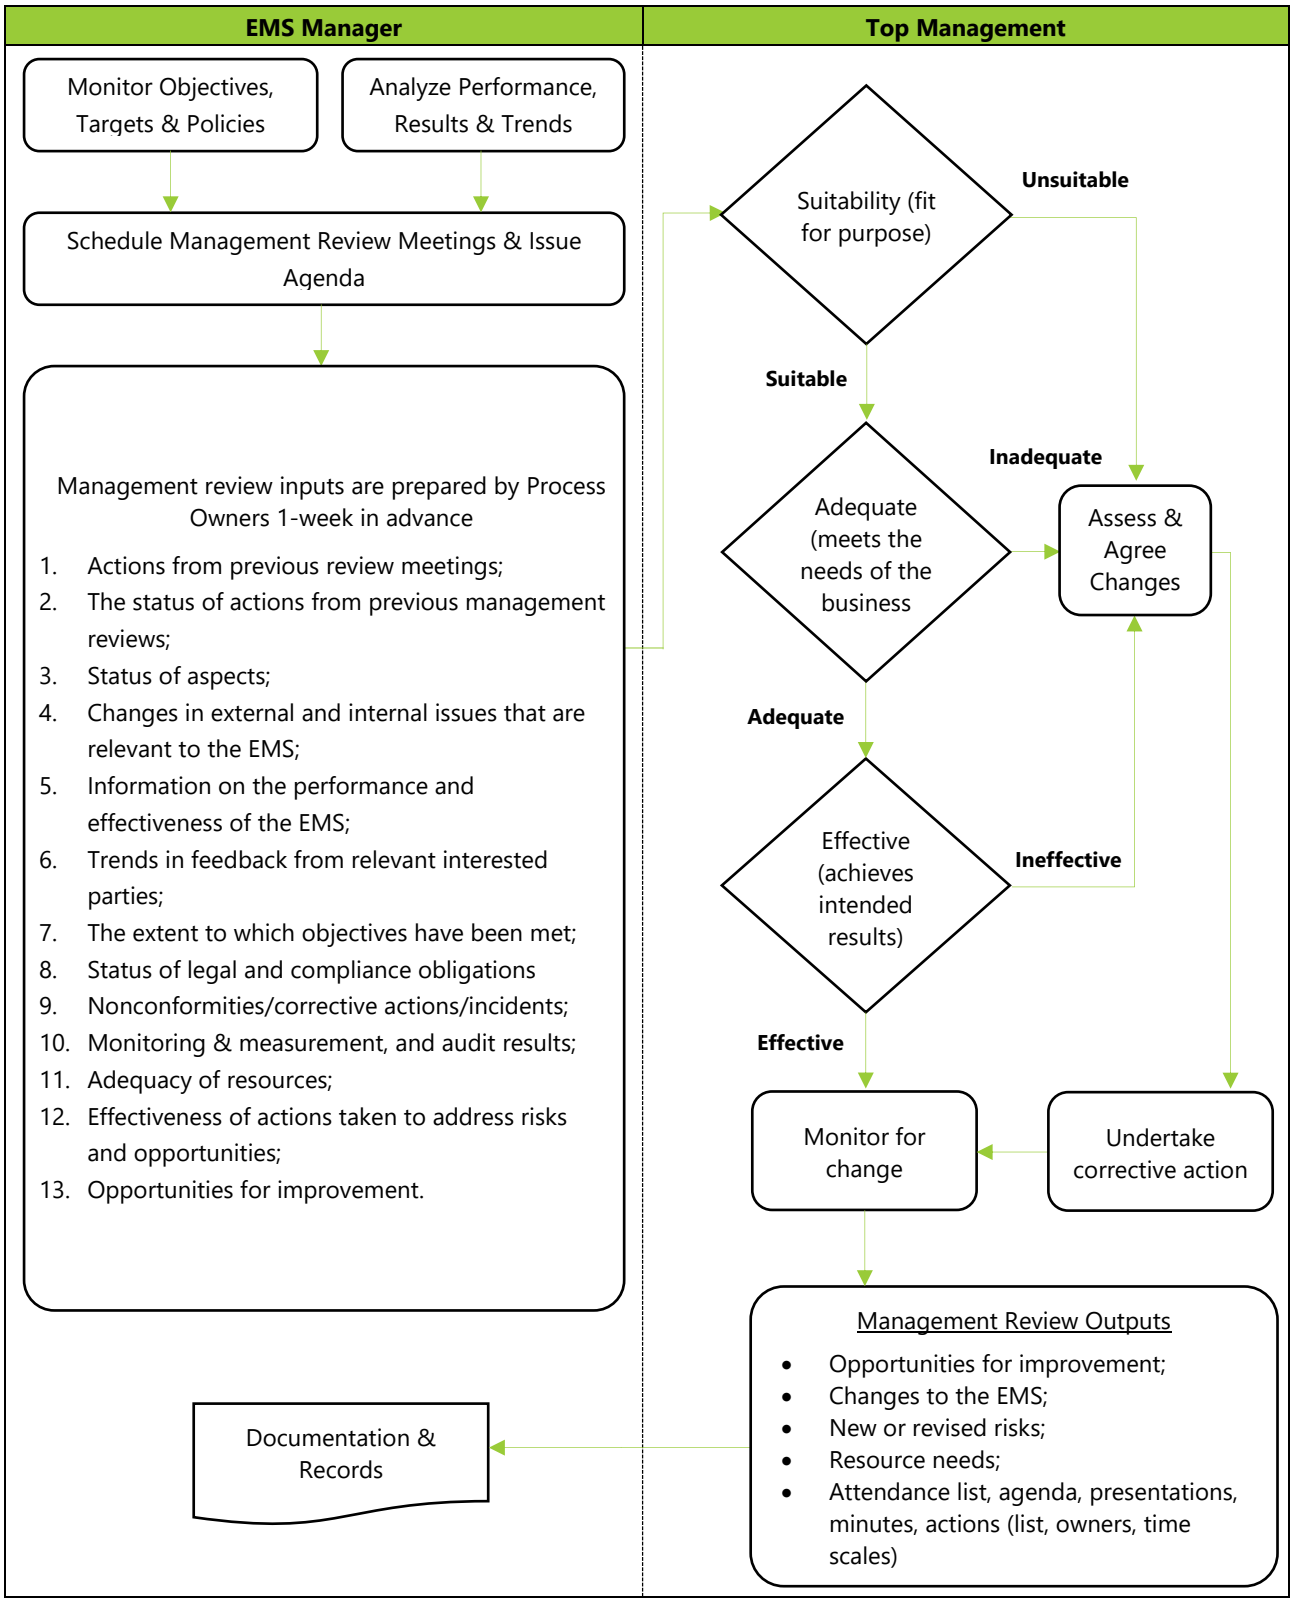
1.8 Process Map

Using a top-down approach, the management review process map describes how the process is structured into a hierarchy of activities that show the sequence of steps, as well as the responsibilities for each step or task:



Endeavour Technical Limited © 2026. All rights reserved